About This Game

The flute nose dynasty has been watching over Asposia for centuries on end. In secret, they fill the roly-poly world with light and life. Emil, a trader for odds and ends, has led all the Asposians astray, making them believe that the dynasty is in cahoots with dark forces. Seriously, who knows what this weird family is doing day in, day out? The only one who could stop evil Emil is the heir to the flute nose throne: Robert. He has been petrified for three years, though. With a huge dose of enthusiasm, but little to no idea what he's actually doing, he embarks on an adventure to find the legendary last wind monk. Of course, he has some great company: Peck, as loyal as he is flightless, and Laura, a rebel who certainly does fly, but only off the handle and who is Robert's love with a capital L, by the way. A final ray of hope is provided by the mysterious Mama Dola, who seems to know more about Robert's destiny than Robert himself...

As promised, here is an update to my original review. The original is below.

The devs certainly do their best for us. Every bug or question has been answered and followed up and as far as I know, has been solved. The bugs that I have encountered seem to be fixed now.

So thumbs up for the developer!

Read my original message for the rest of the game:

This game certainly has its flaws, but it is a very nice game and its core usually works.

At this time of writing, I experience crashes every time I try to do a rematch. No problem, I go back to the main menu and start a new game. One time, I had a crash mid-game (and I think I was winning). Too bad.

But the devs seem to listen to these complaints and I am hopefully waiting for the next update.

To talk about the game itself:

- I didn't know the board game before this game came to Steam, so I can't tell whether it is a good replacement for the board game, but I actually believe that it must be because I can't think of anything the board game could have more.
- The graphics aren't great, I don't mind and neither should you because you don't play this kind of game for AAA graphics but for the experience. Still, it would, in my opinion, be an improvement if the graphics were better because it pleases the eye.
- The AI on EASY mode is way too easy, play it only to get started. But also on MEDIUM, the AI seems to be an idiot. Yesterday, I won on HARD and had the feeling that the AI should have seen it coming. Maybe EXPERT or IMPOSSIBLE will give me the difficulty I need, but I can't tell yet. Anyway, there is a multiplayer option if you want the real stuff.

Short: this game is ok, but it needs bugfixes. I will change this review when those bugfixes have released.. Charming graphics and the draw mechanic is fun, but gets repetitive fast and way too expensive in my opinion.

(I don't have much Steam time on this but played it outside of steam to).

I would say get it while it's ~2-3 bucks. Negative vote cause of the steep price for such a puzzle game.. basically got into the game, couldn't move and then got the♥♥♥♥♥♥beat out me with a pipe. 10/10 would refund again. The game is good. The game is long, so you have to play a lot if you want to see the end of the game. Some fights better and better. But this game doesn't have achievements.

And you can get trading cards.. This game, is not the type you play once and uninstall, you play it a lot of times and the outcome of each game is different than the other.

The animation, the music are awesome. I could listen to the music of this game and never get tired of it.

The flaw in this game, is that your character becomes too powerfull and the the challenges become quite easy.

---

Abandoned by the devs, and they have also taken down the multiplayer servers.... full of bugs. Short and sweet, Another Perspective bends your mind a small way, mixing a little existential darkness with enough meta to keep you unbummed. Well worth a few bucks and a few hours.. Good game, realistic locomotives and quite fun. However, watch what DLC you buy, as some of the DLC is a bit poor and quite expensive. The three routes that come with TS 2019 are detailed and large ones. SWT Portsmouth Direct, Helper - Provo and the West Rhine Railway (in my opinion, i'm not a SWT or US western railfan so the choice sucks a bit).. <http://www.wargamer.com/reviews/review-the-seven-years-war-1756-1763-part-1/>
